THREE HIGHWAYMEN CAUGHT

The Brutal Assailants of Driver Handenshild Overhauled Near Dubuque.

ALL STRANGERS TO THE OFFICERS.

Report of State Dairy Commissioner Tupper on Shipments of Iowa Butter-A Bank Assignment at Boone.

DUBUGUE, Ia., Nov. 10.- | Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-Sheriff Phillips today captured the three highwaymen who shot and robbed Handenshild, the driver for Schmidt Brothers brewery, and they are now safely lodged in the county jail. The capture was made at Center Chove, near the scene of their distardly and murderous assault. They are all strangers, and indications point to the fact that they are the same persons who committed the wholesale burglaries in Wyoming, Jones county.

A Boone Bank Assigns.

Boone, Ia., Nov. 10 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- J. A. McFarland, the banker, today made a voluntary assignment of his banking business to Frank Caldwell, the book-keeper. The assignment was a surprise to every body, and the reason hardly seems apparent. The other banks offered assistance to the McFarland bank, but the offer was refused. The bank has deposits only aggregating about $18,000, and Mr. McFarland bank has deposited by the magnetic form of the bank has deposited by the statement of the bank has deposited by land is said to have some $60,000 worth property, so the depositors do no not i ineasy. It is thought the assignment is only a peculiar way of closing up the banking business.

REVOLUTION IN HONDURAS. Salvadorian and Guatemalan Diffi

cultles Culminate in an Outbreak. (Copyright 489) by James Gardon Bennett, La LIBERTAD, Nov. 10 .- New York Her ald Cable Special to THE BEE ] - The revolution which has been expected for months and which has been gaining headway since the conclusion of the war between Salvador and Guatamala has broken out in Hunduras. Tegucigalpa is in a state of siege. Telegraph communications direct with the capital has been interrupted and it is believed that the wires have been cut, but this is not positively known. Several despatches were received by the Salvadorian government in ragard to the affair. One is to the effect tha on Friday last a part of the garrison of Tegucigates revolted and under the leadership of General Langino Sanchez took pos session, after hard fighting, of the capitol building and arsenal. Since then street skirmishing has been of daily occurrence and Sanchez and his forces now have President Luis Bogran surrounded in one of the wards of the city, and it is believed that he will be forced to surrender unless other garrisons arrive at the scene of the revolt within two or threedays. The garrisons of inspection on the Salvadorian and Nicaraguan frontiers are being pushed toward the capital by forced marches, only enough soldiers being left behind to provent a possible uprising. Several other army men have issued their pronunciamentos and are hurrying with their forces to aid Sanchez. It is believed that the revolution will become general and Bogran will be forced, if not captured, to leave this country The garrisons now on the way to help him may revolt, as they have not been paid for some time, and general discontent reigns, which is only kept in check by the officers in command. Begran has been regarded as the tool of Barrilas and has successfully bankrupted the country. Many people residing in the frontier districts have signified their intention of asking annexation to Nicaragua and Salvador. If Bogran falls there is a possibility that the country will by common consent of the masses be divided between Guatemala, Salvador and Nicaragua.

Presidents Sacaza and Ezeta have increased their frontier garrisons in consequence of the revolt and have instructed the commanders not to allow any armed force to gather for the purpose of invading Honduras. They will maintain a strict neutrality in the pres ent international strife.

Private advices from the city of Guatemala just received here puts a grave aspect upon the revolution in Honduras. It is believed that Barillas will attempt to extend aid to his old ally, Bogran, and in doing so will precipitate a general war in Central America, as it is understood that if he takes a hand in the present trouble Ezeta will call time, with full him to the consent of Nicaragua and Costa Rica, with whom Salvador will be leagued in case of general international strife. The greatest uneasiness prevails in Guatemala and the movements of Barillas are watched with suspicion. Minister Michner has been sending long dispatches to his government and it is surmised that they treat of the present revo lution which is extending rapidly in all parts of Honduras.

Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE. - I had a private audincee of an hour today with President Ezeta in regard to the revolution in Honduras, He fully confirmed, dispatch which he the reported revolution Tegucigalpa adding the details that the slaughter in the taking of the state building and aresenal was very heavy. Troops are being hurried to the relief of Bogran from every quarter of the republic. Ezeta assured me he should remain entirely neutral, but could not allow Barillas to interfere in the troubles of Honduras. The present affair ined for its people alone to solve and Guatemala must keep aloof. Ezeta expressed the hope that the revolution would soon be over and deprecated a general war in Central America, which would positively follow if Barillas attempted to to interfere in the present strife.

THERE IS NO DISEASE.

Secretary Rusk Speaks Positively as to Pleuro Pneumonia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 .- The attenton of Secretary Rusk was today called to the report cabled, in which the British minister of sericulture, Chaplin, is represented as oppos ing the removal of the restrictions of the British government against five cattle from the United States. The secretary said Chaplain was taking the side of those whose inter ests led them to oppose the free introduction of American store cattle, and seemed to forget that this country had abundant evidence that there exists among purchasers of store cattle in England and Scotland a widespread feeling in favor of the unrestricted importation of cattle from this country, provided they can be allowed with perfect safety to British cattle. The secretary construes the resolution recently adopted by the agricultural council to mean that it is simply a question of time—when the British government will feel obliged to remove the restrictions from any country which car show conclusively that disease has been eradi "Just as soon as sufficient time has, in opinion, elapsed since the last case of pieuro-pneumonia occurred in this country, I shall make an official declaration of the complete eradicate and shall strive to satisfy the British government that disease does not exist there. If this does not secure the withdrawal of these restrictions, England will have at least to abandon the charge of the unhealthfulness of our cattle as the cause, There are buyers as well as sellers abroad, and they will probably see to it that their interests also receive some atten

Referring to Secretary Chaplin's assertion that pleuro-pneumonia still existed here, See retary Rusk said: "I unhesitatingly chal-lenge Chaplin to point out a single case of pleuro-pneumonia now existing among American cattle. Of course I can not tell what is his source of information, but whatever it is, he is grievously misled. One thing is certain, and that is it is now over six months since any allegations have been made by British officers of the discovery of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle from the United States landed in Great Britain."

Field on Capitaland Labor.

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]-A meeting of the Liberty and Property Defenses league was held today, at which Mr. David Dudley Field of New York presided. Mr. Field delivered an address on the "Functions of the State," He said that state ought not to provide work the people nor furnish them with bread, clothes, houses, or land. Of all the means to reconcile the conflict between capital and labor, nothing, in Mr. Field's opinion, was equal to co-operation. He did not believe that the socialist theories, which are now menacing and disturbing society would ever be generally accepted. Society might be fiercely shaken, but it would no

POLITICS INJUTAH TERRITORY

Cause of the Remarkable Falling Off in the Liberal Vote.

PARTY LINES SOON TO BE DRAWN

The Republicaus Favor This Policy and the Democrats are Equalty Eager-Polygamy Still Flourishing Despite Woodruff's Proclamation.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Nov. 10 .- [Special to THE BEE.]-Returns from all counties in the territory show the election of Caine, Mormon, by about 4,500 majority, a loss of 1,500 as compared with the election of two years ago and a gain when compared with the recent county elections of about 4,000. Had the Gentiles polled their full vote Goodwin might have been elected, but only about 60 per cent of them yoted, hence the result. The Mormons carried Salt Lake county by 400, which is a great gain, the liberals win ning in the last election by a majority of 100. Weber county was also carried by the Mormons and Ogden came near falling into their hands. The causes for this dissaffection are numerous. The fact of its being an "off" election is one. There were no other offices to fill and many liberal voters believing that it was no use voting stayed at home. Another reason can be found in this statement of facts. A few days prior to the election a number of leading democrats addressed a letter to Judge Goodwin, asking him to define his position on the Lodge election bill. His reply was not entirely satisfactory, and the result is many stayed away from the polls. While they did not vote for him, neither did they vote for Caine. This election is doubtless the last one that will be held in Utah on the present basis. Party lines will surely be drawn soon. The Times, a republican paper, has been advocating this policy, and the democrats, of which there are a great number, are eager for the day when they can enter the field as a distinctive organization. When that time comes it will be amusing to ply was not entirely satisfactory, and the re that time comes it will be amusing to note the positions that will be taken. It is generally understood that the Mormons are all democrats. This is a mistake. On the contrary the leaders are nearly all republi can. George Q. Cannon, first counsellor to President Woodruff, Bishop Sharp and W.W. Riter, three of the wealthiest and most influ-ential men in the church are republicans. As go the leaders so go the common herd and were party lines drawn there is but little doubt of Utah's going republican. Judg Goodwin, the defeated candidate, is a repub ican. As editor of the Tribune he has fough onism from the first day he took th editorial chair. How he and George O Cannon could affillate is a mystery. Judge Powers, the leading democrat, is also a vigorous fighter of Mormonism. John T. Caine the delegate-elect, is a democrat. It would be an exemplification of the old old saw "Politics makes strange bedfel to see these men work together. But

An important suit has been brought in the name of the United States against W. P. Preston, Robert Burton and John Rumder trustees of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. It is brought under the provisions of the acts of congress of 1862 and of 1887. The first provided that no church corporation could hold property in any territory in excess of $50,000 and the second required the attorney-general to institute proceedings to forfeit and escheat all property so acquired and to annul the corporation of so acquired and to annul the corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Day Saints and to take possession of all property. This suit asks that the great temple, the tabernacle, council house, the gardo house, the tithing house and grounds be forfeited to the United States. It is likely that the church will fight this suit to is likely that the church will fight this suit to the bitter end, as the property mentioned represents all the hopes and labors of the years that have rolled by since Brigham Young and his little bard first established the modern Zion. The temple is nearly com-pleted and has cost them over $3,000,000 aiready. This magnificent structure is the pride of every Mormon in Utah and else-tables. It was the intention to exemple it is where. It was the intention to complete it in 1893 in order that exactly forty years might be used in constructing it. Then there is the council house which is itself sacred because under the pulpit, secure from pub-lic gaze, repose the bones of lic gaze, repose the bones of the late prophet, Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism and the discoverer of the golden plates of Moroni, and the taber nacle, with its scating capacity of 10,000 and its magnificent organ. And the tithing house? This too, is sacred, almost For years one-tenth of everything produced in Utah has poured into the church treasury through this building. The nistorian's office too is another sacred spot. In it all the the church of its history would be a great hardship. The gardo house, or Amelia pal-ace, as it is called, is known to every person who has ever visited Salt Lake, as the man-sion Brigham built for his favorite concubine, Amelia Folsom. It is used at present as a residence for the president of the church. To take it away would be the last straw.

its attorneys will wage a bit-ter legal war for its posesssion, "What shall we do with our polygamous wives?" is a query that is perplexing all those who have been living in polygamy up to the date of President Woodruff's manifesto. The church has as yet made no declaration. church has as yet made no declaration. And it probably will not. I called on President Woodruff three or four times to ask what action would be taken but like fifty others who have visited him with the same object had my trouble for my pains. He will not talk to any newspaper men excepting the editor of the Deseret News, the official church organ. It is believed that this silence is due to Geo. A. Cannon's efforts. Cannon has more than one wife, in fact he has four. To issue an order divorcing them would not suit issue an order divorcing them would not suit him by any means. Hence peace and quiet prevail. In the meantime arrests are made daily. Bishe, Jorgensen of Provo was ar-rested a day or two ago for having seven wives, and yet some people say that polygamy is a thing of the past. Forty-two arrests have been made in the past sixty days for this crime, and all the reports sent out by the church to the contrary are false. The court records will prove the truth of what I assert.

The territory has been flooded with amateur correspondents during the past three menths who have "writ up" the country. The most of them got their information from history ten years old. The Personal Rights league torchlight procession was most emphatic and significant. Headed by a band the procession moved up Second street with banners and transparences of various designs and inscriptions, notable among them being a huge coffin with a white shroud, labeled "Probibition," which was afterwards consigned to the bosom of a huge bonfire amidst the most vociferous demonstration of applauss while the band played "Home, Sweet Home." At the opera house, which was packed to suffocation, the independents jollified. Mc-Keighan was introduced by Hon. Robert He said he wished it understood that he would not be a noisy congressman. He would not be bound by party caucus and pledged himself to work for the interests of Hastings and the Second district. He will vote to restore silver to the oldtime basis, will favor the placing of silver on an equality with gold, favors the Australian ballot system, regards the shotgun policy of the south right and just compared with the man who holds a mortgage in one hand and a ballot in the other, and favors Blaine's reciprocity idea. His objection to the present pension law is the fact that it requires longer to secure a pension than it does to convict and hang a man in Nebraska. CANVASSING VOTES.

The County Board Hard at Work on the Poll Books.

The interesting and notable feature in con aection with the canvassing of the county vote, as now being proceeded with, is the very scrupulous care with which the work is being prosecuted.

The task is by no means a small one. Fifty-eight precincts, with an unprecedented vote in the county, with more scratching than was ever done before, and a greater number of party tickets in the field, all con spire to make the work both taxing and wear isome. The canvassing board consists of County

Clerk O'Malley and ex-Sheriff Coburn and ex-Councilman T. H. Dailey, his ap-pointees according to law. A rule established immediately upon the convening of the board. Saturday morning morning. that its members should not be bothered b any intrusions whatever, has resulted in the work being progressed with in a much more satisfactory manner than it possibly could have been otherwise. The work of a preliminary examination of the condition of the poli books and adidavits was completed yesterday and in addition a fair beginning was made of the canvass proper. It was found that a much closer beyance of the statute provisions as to the reeping of the books had been observed been the case for many an election Evidently every judge and clerk was bound that for once at least none of them should be summoned to account for anything in the way of carelessness in the execution of their

The work is proceeded with by wards, com mencing with the First; and the wards by precincts, the same order being observed. No precinct or ward is left until the result of its canvass has been completely and unan-imously agreed upon by the entire board. Up to the time of the board's adjournment last night the First ward and the greater part of the Second had been canvassed, with the result of finding ne material errors. It is not expected that the work will be finished before tonight, if indeed by that

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. James E. Moore, representing that sterling attraction, "Mr. Barnes of New York," which opens a four nights' engage ment at the Boyd on next Sunday evening, is in the city. The play has done a phenome nally large business wheraver it has an peared this season, and Omaha will doubtless be no exception to the rule. The company carries its own special scenery and the cast is the same that was in the original production

The attraction at Boyd's opera house the last half of the week is one of the most strik-ing successes Messrs. David Behasco and Henry C. De Mille have yet written. There is a wealth of humor, a vein of tender pathos, an interesting story from first to last. Each character will be ably represented by players specially engaged for their role, and all the scenery and accessories made from the origi-nal designs will be brought, promising one of the most perfect, realistic productions of the scason's amusements.

LOOKS LIKE A CONSPIRACY.

Suspicious Circumstances Attending

the Death of a Salt Lake Dentist. Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 10 .- [Special Tele gram to THE BEE. | - What looks like a con spiracy to defraud a widow and infant child out of a $10,000 life insurance has been de veloped today. Samuel Keamer, an ex-Jewish dentist, died last night, ostensibly from typhoid pneumonia, but really from overdoc toring, done, as the widow declares, for the express purpose of getting that insurance money. A brother of the deceased, still a Hebrew, turned up as the disease was at a crisis, discharged the three reputable doctor in attendance and brought in an obscure He-brew and, with other equally obscure He-brews, took charge of the sick man and drove off the wife by main force. She was timid and worn out and intimidated and was neither permitted to see her husband again nor was she called in when he died. Moreover she had found that the Jew peddler brother had robbed the cabi-net of the deceased of the insurance certificate and his gold watch. A mysterious stranger had been called in twice during the final sickness and the three remained with the dying man, who, the wife believes, was compelled to sign papers he knew nothing about. But the insurance company has been notified and the will, if one was made, will be fought. The Jews brought in a Hebrew rabbi this morning to bury the body according to the Jewish rites, though the decease was a Lutheran. The police had to be called in to drive them out. The widow's friends came to the rescue and have now possession

The board of fire and police commissioners listened to a few echoes from the late election in Omaha last night. One of the probibition workers named Rose entered complaint against Officer Foley, charging him with assault at the polls. The case was laid over for one week.

against Officer Cox, claiming that the officer assaulted him without provocation at the Fifth precinct of the Fourth ward on at the Fifth precinct of the Fourth ward on election day. He said further that Cox arrested him without cause. The action of Officer Cox was sustained and commended by the judges of election at the place where the arrest of O'Connor took place. A letter to Chief Seavey signed by William Fletcher, C. F. Crury and H. E. Maxwell, judges of election was ward in which the contract of election, was read, in which these gentlement stated that Officer Cox did his duty manfully and did not exceed his authority.

This case was also continued one week.

The case of Officer Davis, charged with being drunk October 22, was called. Ser-geants Ormsby and Graves testified as to the conduct of Officer Davis and said that he had indulged freely in the use of intoxicating liquor that day and was unfit for duty Several other witnesses were called, some of whom said they had seen Dayis when under the influence of liquor and others denied that Davis was drunk on that day or that he was addicted to the habit. Davis said in his own behalf that he had been having some family difficulty and had taken a few drinks, but was not drunk at the time Ser geant Graves had accused him of being in toxicated. He said he had taken two grinks of whisky and four glasses of beer on the afternoon of October 21, but he had not neglected his duty in any way.

The following letter from Chief Scavey was received by the fire and police commission, and by unanimous vote the press of the city was requested to publish the same is

To the honorable board of fire and police commissioners, gentlemen: I have the honor to report that during the election day, the 5th instant, there were ninety-two police offi-cers and forty-one special policemen on duty at the polls and elsewhere about the city. The police officers on duty worked thirteen hours, and the special policemen on duty worked twelve nours, I read law governing elections to all and instructed them accordingly and notwithstanding the several complaints that the police exceeded their authority in some instances and that certain persons did not receive public protection, I have reason to believe that the police department performed its duty thoroughly and well. Several quarreis occurred at the different polling places which were immediately stopped by the police, thereby preventing any serious disturb ance. There were thirty-one arrests made during the twenty-four hours ending at 7:30 a. m., November 5, thirteen of which were for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Two saloon keepers were found doing ousiness election day, namely, John Didans, at Sheeley, and F. Hunziker, 414 South Thirteenth street, both of whom will be prosecuted. The Important and memora ble election of November 4, 1850, was one of the most quietgeneral elections held in Omaha during my term of office. I attribute the good order of the day to the fact of the saloon being closed, the orderly conduct of our citi zens and the vigilance, discretion and activity of the police force. Respectfully submitted,

W. S. SEAVEY, Chief of Police.
On motion of Mr. Gibbert the thanks of the board of fire and police commissioners were extended to the police force for the exellent work done on election day.

The following officers were granted leaves of absence: Bloom, Dougherty, Enright and Sullivan. Chief Galligan of the fire departmen isked the board to make arrangements for a comfortable and convenient office for his use. An office will be fitted up for Chief Galligan t the police station.

The board then went into executive session and dismissed Officer Davis from the force.

EOARD OF EDUCATION.

Business Transacted at the Meeting fast Evening. There were twelve members of the board of education at the meeting last night when President Goodman rapped for order.

The report of Superintendent James showed that on account of sickness the eachers in the schools had lost forty-one days during the month of October. John A. Henderson, pastor of the Park ave nue Presbyterian church wrote a letter t the board. He said he had withdrawn his children from the public schools. This was the reason he gave: "My only apology for such a course is this, I can afford to pay for the education of my children, but I cannot afford to be a partaker of the profits of the saloon business, which every one must be who has children in the schools, or who is eacher there." The letter was placed on file. Treasurer John Rush filed his October re

AN EXCITING DAY ON 'CHANGE

The Decline of All Stocks Produces a Decidedly Panicky Feeling.

BROKER STROUTHERS DROPS DEAD.

The Incident Scarcely Makes an Im? pression on the Flurried Brokers-Effect of the News at Washington and Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- The Evening Post in its financial article says: "The panie in the stock market was continued this morning in about the same temper as on Friday and Saturday, declines ranging from 1 to 6 points in the first 15 minutes of business, the heaviest declines being Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis 6 points; Manhattan 6; Western Union 5; Reading 3; New England 3 and all others from 1 to 21/2 points. By some very astate people it was regarded as very significant that Manhattan Elevated opened points lower and Western Union 2 points ower, and that Western Union quickly dropped 3 points more and Manhattan 1 point more, thus being important factors in depressing all other prices, and that Reading dropped 3 points to 27% as one of the effects. Whether the reported holdings of Reading by Mr. Wamamaker who has a scheme for a pos-tal telegraph in opposition to the Western Union, have any connection with the manipulation of Western Union which was quite apparent, was impossible to say but it looked as though it had. Nevertheless the panic received fresh impetus from London this morning in the first prices made in that market before the opening of this. All stocks opened there \( \frac{1}{2} \) lower than they closed here on Saturday. Money was higher in London at noon and all the great banks of Europe appear to be grabbing for the diminished sup ply of gold, some of which has gone to Spain and South America." After 11 o'clock the heavy pressure was renoved to a certain extent, but stocks conthrued to come upon the market and prices again took a downward direction. The Grangers, the Villards and New England, which were the chief sufferers in the decline of the market displayed no recuperative power and at noon when business was arrested by death by approplexy on the floor of the exchange of James Struthers, one of the members. the market was active but weak and generally at the lowest prices of the Struther's dead body tay on the floor surrounded by the brokers for some time. On the last and only other occasion when death occurred on the exchange business was at once suspended for the day, but on account of the situation today the officials ould not close the exchange and at 12:30 business was resumed. The decline was re-newed with increasing rapidity. Prices again fell off with great rapidity but are now omewhat better.

Mr. Struthers had entered a few minutes fore and was noticed to be acting in a singnlar manner. He staggered up against one or two brokers and suddenly fell forward on his face, dving in a few minutes. Strutthers was seriously ill two years ago and had not been himself since. Friends noticed recently that he had not been looking well and the doctor said the excitement was undoubtedly too much for him. Struthers was fifty-eight years old and leaves a wife and young daughter. Sharp to the minute of 12:30, exactly after the half hour recess had been announced, the president again mounted the restrum and made the official announcement of the unfortunate broker's death. He had hardly stepped down from the platform before there was a rush and a shout and business once more resumed on the floor. This scene, as well as that when the recess was announced, was characteristic of the tre-mendons excitement pervading the market today. When the death was first announced scores of brokers without waiting to hear anything about it, rushed off in mad haste to make the best use they could of the time in making up their accounts.

No Flurry in Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. - Secretary Windom was kept fully advised of the condition of the money market today, but did not feel called n to take any action in the matter beyond the purchase of all the silver bullion offered to the department. Bonds are coming in very slowly, however, and the total redemption to date is less than $5,000,000.

Gould's Opinion.

New York, Nov. 10 .- Jay Gould was asked this afternoon to give his views in regard to the great fall in prices on Wall street. He said: "There is no doubt that the market would have righted itself if the trouble in London had not come up. How much farther hings will go I don't know. I only know that any one who has courage to buy and patience to wait will make money, so far as I know anything about the different properties. those that I am interested in. at 19:30 p. m., the stocks of American reads showed a decline of 14 to 315.

On the stock exchange today the feeling of alarm and apprehension as to the results of the coming settlement became intense. Every kind of security was freely sold. American railroads were panicky and the depression was especially marked in dealings in the street. On cable advices reporting declin s in New York, heavy sales were made here. Today's drop in American railroads ranges from 11d to 5d.
